REUNION GUEST BOOK

KIRS

MAY 21-22-1977

designed by

Robert Sterling

This simple booklet will contain the names of people who chose to come together out of sentiment to meet with each other, to reminisce, and perhaps to mark the near-end of an institution which represented a significant historical era in the lives of Native Indian People .....

Former KIRS students invited to re-union

A big reunion is being planned for all students who attended the Kamloops Indian Residential School through the years, with the reunion to be held at KIRS in Kamloops on May 21 and 22.

Co-ordinator of the re-union is Nancy Biccum, a former Merritt resident who is now living on Vancouver Island.

In an interview with the Merritt Herald on Monday, Mrs. Biccum said she is hoping everyone from this area who attended the school will make a real effort to attend. "We have an exciting program lined up for the two days and are looking forward to seeing, once again, all the people we went to school with."

She wants to let everyone know that the ten dollars being charged is only for those who wish to attend the big banquet and dance on the Saturday evening and it is to help pay the costs. "Those who don't wish to attend these but would like to take part in the daytime activities on either or both days, is most welcome to attend with no charge."

On Saturday, there will be Indian Dancing with Ernie Philip and family, and slides by Father Noonan, OMI of the 'good old school days' where many of the students will recognize themselves.

On Sunday, there will be more slides, by Benny Paul, a former teacher, and more Indian dancing, with the evening ending off with the "Bone Games" and socializing with classmates.

There is going to be a big salmon barbecue on both days, sponsored by the Fountain Ladies Club.

The last graduation from that school was in 1959, Mrs. Biccum said, and since that time, the school has been used as a dormitory for those students who now attend schools in Kamloops.
